

THE LAW THAT CANNOT BE AMENDED

Pastor Solomon L. Williams

One day as I sat, pondering on things I could see and wonder about, I thought, why is it, we African Americans as a whole, live in squalor while others seemingly have been given the ability to produce for themselves the necessities of life and more with no hassle? I began to think about certain characters of life that are bigger than the imagination. Like the developer of McIntosh. Do you know how rich he is? He just started thinking and brought his thoughts to fruition by believing he could do it no matter what others thought about it. His inner self consumed him with his thoughts. His mind impregnated with thoughts he could not control. He was not thinking about being rich, he just thought about making long distance calls without being charged a red cent. You know, he achieved his objective and went much further and today we have the computer, iPad, iPod and many other developments. Because a boy sat down and permitted, his spirit to be stirred by a power within which he obviously did not perceive as the GOD of the universe using him to bring about change on this earth that everybody could benefit. I received my answer. GOD has no respect of person and He can use whomever He will, because He is GOD Jehovah Elohim.

Oh, yeah, I can sit here and think about the impediments evil has taken against us, like institutionalized racism. However, the bottom line is how I perceive of myself.

"INVICTUS"

Poem by William E. Henley

"Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever god's may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstances
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the Horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds, and shall find, me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll.

I am the master of my fate:
I am the captain of my soul."

Yes, I am the proprietor of my destiny. In the Bible, Mark ninth chapter Jesus took James, Peter and John up unto the mountain to pray. Then as they rejoined the other disciples,

... they saw that they were surrounded by a large crowd and that some of the scribes were arguing with them. As soon as the people saw Jesus, they ran forward excitedly to welcome him. "What is the trouble?" Jesus asked them. A man from the crowd answered, "Master, I brought my son to you because he has a dumb spirit. Wherever he is, it gets hold of him, throws him down on the ground and there he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth. It's simply wearing him out. I did speak to your disciples to get them to drive it out, but they hadn't the power to do it."

Jesus answered them,

"Oh, what a faithless people you are! How long must I be with you, how long must I put up with you? Bring him here to me." So they brought the boy to him, and as soon as the spirit saw Jesus, it convulsed the boy, who fell to the ground and writhed there, foaming at the mouth. "How long has he been like this?" Jesus asked the father. "Ever since he was a child," he replied. "Again and again it has thrown him into the fire or into water to finish him off. But if you can do anything, please take pity on us and help us." "IF YOU CAN DO ANYTHING!" retorted Jesus. "Everything is possible to the man who believes." "I do believe," the boy's father burst out. "Help me to believe more!" When Jesus noticed that a crowd was rapidly gathering, he spoke sharply to the evil spirit, with the words, "I command you, deaf and dumb spirit, come out of this boy, and never go into him again!" The spirit gave a loud scream and after a dreadful convulsion left him. The boy lay there like a corpse, so that most of the bystanders said, "He is dead." But Jesus grasped his hands and lifted him up, and then he stood on his own feet. When he had gone home, Jesus disciples asked him privately, "Why were we unable to drive it out?" "Nothing can drive out this kind of thing except prayer and fasting," replied Jesus.

(Mark 9:14–29, NTME)

Spiritual immaturity does not acknowledge the fact that faith must accompany your belief in prayer. Spiritual immaturity must be acknowledged by faith. The father's faith was immature. Jesus threw the father's words back to him:

"it is not a question, if I can, but if thou canst believe. All things are possible to him that believeth."

- a. All things are possible to the Son of GOD. The power of GOD is available, but a person must trust in GODs power. It cannot be amended.
- b. The great principle of prayer and faith was being taught to the man.

AND IT CANNOT AND WILL NOT BE AMENDED. GOD said what He meant and meant what He said.

"And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive."

(Matthew 21:22, KJV)

"But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to GOD must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him"

(Hebrews 11:6, KJV)

Spiritual immaturity must be acknowledged by humility and crying for help. The man was weak, but his need was desperate. He accepted the Lords Word.

1. He was weak (sinful) and needing help personally.
2. His lack of faith was the problem.

We must have faith and believe in Jesus Christ, a Spiritual Law that cannot be amended.
